You Can Now Donate Your Excess Garden Produce To A Food Pantry Located Near You

Thanks to a partnership with AmpleHarvest.org, you can donate your extra fresh garden produce at one of 7,500 local food pantries across all 50 states all year long.

Don't waste any food. Turn those extra tomatoes and cucumbers (or anything else you've grown) into a charitable donation.

Help your community – and get a tax deduction too*

It's simple, it's local and it's free
